Spring Ordeal 2022

This month Tsali Lodge 134 was able to hold our annual Spring Ordeal at Camp Daniel Boone. We were able to induct twenty new Ordeal Members, nine Brotherhood members, and three Vigil members! We also held an LECM. During the event, many tents were set up for summer camp 2022. Brothers and sisters of the OA had fun at the shotgun range and in a kickball game, as well as at singing and dancing demonstrations.

If you have not done your ordeal and would like to, make sure to sign up for the summer ordeal in August of this year. Tsali Lodge congratulates each candidate who completed their ordeal, and is excited for their future with the lodge.

Patch Design Opportunity

Hello, Tsali Lodge! As many of you know, unique patches are for sale at each OA event. We all have our own favorite patches but I'm happy to say that right now, the patch committee is looking for some new patch designs, and wants your help.

Flap designs that we need are those for cornerstone conclave, jamboree, Camp Daniel Boone, and the 85th anniversary of Tsali Lodge. We also need event patches for spring fellowship, spring ordeal, summer ordeal, fall fellowship, winter banquet, and log rolling. Don't be shy; when you've come up with a design, please email your ideas to patch.chairman@tsalilodge.org and hank@birdsongfamily.com.

Thank you for your participation!

Cornerstone Conclave

On April 23rd, members of Tsali Lodge 143 attended Cornerstone Conclave at Camp Barnhardt. We participated alongside seven other lodges in a weekend full of activities and friendly competition. I am happy to report that The Bow was awarded the best newsletter, and Tsali Lodge won best display, which is pictured to the left. We also won team sing and got second place in the totem pole activity.

We would also like to congratulate Eli Kayne, a member of the lodge who won first place in the traditional "individual dance" category as well as the traditional "parade of braves" category. Well done, brothers and sisters!

OA's High Adventure Program

If you're not sure yet what to do with your summer, the OA High Adventure program may be right for you. I've been to two of the BSA's national high adventure bases through OA High Adventure, and it's been highly inspirational both times. With any of the programs, the general idea is that you spend the first half of your time there doing service work like the OA is known for. For the second half, you get to explore everything the base has to offer, and you even get to see things that you'd never see by going there with a troop. It's truly the next step for older arrowmen.

Through these programs, I've navigated with the north star, rafted in Class V rapids, and sheltered through thunderstorms. I still keep in touch with some of the friends I met on my trek two years ago, because these programs cause you to become incredibly close to your crew.

Now, for the best part, these programs are CHEAP!! Some of you may expect a certain price based on your troop's previous experiences, but OA High Adventure costs a lot less. When I went to Summit, I paid them $275 for eight days. I was at Northern Tier for 15 days, and I only paid them $200!

The logistics: The age requirement for OA Summit Experience is 14-17. For every other base, the ages are 16-20. If you're interested in registering, check out <https://oa-bsa.org/high-adventure> and let me know what you're thinking of - my email is listed below.

Submit Your Articles to The Bow!

Greetings, Tsali Lodge! I'm Liam, the secretary of Tsali Lodge and author of The Bow newsletter. I'm always looking for new articles to put in The Bow, so if you would like to submit an article of your own to the newsletter, please don't hesitate to draft it and send it to me in an email. Please remember that officers should ideally be sending in at least one article a month about what's happening in the lodge. This helps everyone who reads the newsletter stay up-to date on the latest events.

I can't wait to see what you all come up with. Thank you!
