Spring Fellowship Recap

This year's spring fellowship was a great success! We had six new brotherhood members inducted, we filled cabins with mattresses for cub-parent weekend, and finished a fishing platform for the camp. Seven Vigil honor nominees were called out, and the quest for the golden arrow events were outstanding! Thanks to everyone who attended Spring Fellowship!

May's Featured Patch

Since we just had our latest Vigil callout at the Spring Fellowship I thought I'd focus on one of the Vigil flaps. This one is bound to get your attention. Awe yes, a nice flap that catches the eye pretty quick. The yellow border can throw you for a minute since it's a Vigil flap, that usually has a gold border. Of course it's the S7 Vigil flap issued in 1977. Once you see the smoke and teepees you know it's one to get your hands on. I don't know very much about the yellow border or anything else about this flap other than it is a good one to get for your collection. They do show up from time to time and can usually be acquired with some cash or a very good trader flap or patch. If you have any info on any Tsali issues or items, please feel free to contact me at thetea_man@hotmail.com. I'll see you at the trading post!
